

The media consolidation under Sinclair Broadcasting has put the balanced reporting of news on the public airwaves at risk. Sinclair has chosen to run an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge. The public will not long stand for the abuses from monopoly organizations such as this.

We need to strengthen media ownership rules and put Sinclair and others who think they can abuse what has been given to them without consequences.

Very Sincerely,
L Butts